NOTA BENE

In Passiontide (Lent V) Mass is offered similar to a Requiem, i.e. the Judica psalm in the Preparation is omitted and the Gloria Patri is not said; a third oration is omitted; all statues, icons and paintings are veiled in violet without any decoration and remain so until the Gloria on Holy Saturday.

NO Requiems may be offered at this time, even funerals must be delayed until after the Paschal Octave.

PASCHALTIDE

The great Festival of Easter, the Queen of Feasts, will, of course, be celebrated with all the joy and splendour possible. The Altars will be adorned in a festive manner; the antependia or frontals, as well as the Vestments of the Clergy, should be white or of cloth of gold.

Easter Day is a privileged Sunday of the first class and it is also a Double Feast of the first class with an Octave. The Octave is also privileged, and it is impossible to celebrate any other Feast during this Octave; the Monday and Tuesday are Doubles of the first class but should be celebrated with a less degree of solemnity than Easter Day. Low Sunday, the Octave Day, is a Sunday of the first class and is to be observed in the same manner as a Double Feast.

At Mattins and Evensong on Easter Day, and daily until the following Saturday, there is no Office Hymn, but in its place should be sung, "This is the Day which the LORD hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it." (Psalm cxviii. 24). At the first Vespers of Low Sunday, and daily until the Eve of the Ascension, the Office Hymn should be Ad coenam Agni providi; and at Mattins on Low Sunday, and daily till Ascension Day, it should be Aurora lucis rutilat; or Rex sempiternae coelitem.

The proper Processional for Easter Day is Salve! Festa Dies.

If there be a Paschal Candle, it should be placed on a large candelabrum standing on the floor of the Sanctuary at the Gospel side of the Altar. It should be lighted at the Solemn Celebration of the Holy Eucharist and at Vespers on Easter Day and the two following days; also on the Saturday in Easter Week and on all Sundays till Ascension Day. It is also lighted on Ascension Day, but is extinguished at the end of the Gospel and removed at the conclusion of the Service.

ROGATIONTIDE

Rogation is simply an English form of the Latin rogatio, which comes from the verb rogare, which means "to ask." The primary purpose of the Rogation Days is to ask God to bless the fields and the parish (the geographic area) that they fall in. Rogation Days, like their distant cousins the Ember Days, are days set aside to observe a change in the seasons. Rogation Days are tied to the spring planting. There are four Rogation Days: the Major Rogation, which falls on April 25, and three Minor Rogations, which are celebrated on the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday immediately before Ascension Thursday. Rogation Days are "Days of prayer, and formerly also of fasting, instituted by the Church to appease God's anger at man's transgressions, to ask protection in calamities, and to obtain a good and bountiful harvest."

It is customary on Rogation days both Major and Minor to recite the Litany of the Saints in procession around the parish boundaries. While many parishes have boundaries that are too extensive to walk it is to be encouraged to visit some portion of them and recite the Litany or indeed to do so in church. It would certainly be commendable to recite the Litany on April 25th prior to the Mass of the day i.e. of St Mark, Evangelist.
